I would think that with Egypt a carefully paced process of winning over the people that live there would be the most natural and beneficial. I also know that Islam and Christianity come from the same root culture, and I would think that somehow the many faiths and cultures could learn from each other as well. I think that the future of the world would be better if more people would just get along and become one people rather than divide themselves into different groups. I agree with all of this. I also think China and Russia are going to advance in the future. And since America's debt is massive, they are going to be behind for a while. I would like to point out that Russia won the Cold War. Forgot to mention: I think the Middle East (Arab world) could really use some world peace. I don't see how this relates. Dethatcher's Post #7 I agree with all of this. I also think China and Russia are going to advance in the future. And since America's debt is massive, they are going to be behind 1cb139a0ed
